

Clare Singh

Australia

Clare Singh is a UK-trained, Australian-registered radiographer, academic. Drawing on 25 years of clinical experience across the United Kingdom and Australia, she brings together frontline radiographic practice, education and research. Clare is a Senior Lecturer in Diagnostic Radiography at Charles Sturt University and a Senior Fellow of Advance HE. She serves on Australia's Medical Radiation Practice Registration and Notifications Committee, previously chaired the national ASMIRT Computed Tomography Reference Group, and is a member of the expert panel reviewing the Royal Australian and New Zealand Radiologist's iodinated contrast media guidelines. Her research focuses on contrast hypersensitivity, clinical documentation and translating evidence into safer imaging practice.
