

Dr Liezl Fourie-Oliver

Johannesburg, South Africa

---

Liezl Fourie Oliver is a very passionate, committed Clinical facilitator at Mowbray Maternity Hospital, who offers an excellent service to all patients, staff and students alike. .

She is responsible for the facilitation of teaching and learning (theoretical and clinical component), and also assists in the clinical environment to reinforce learning and assist to integrate theory and practice and thus ensuring that the learning that took place is reinforced.

She is a Midwife specialist with 15yrs experience in midwifery.
Her great passion is empowering women through respectful maternity care to ensure positive birth experiences.

As a facilitator, she shares her knowledge with other professionals and students and help with issues of quality and assist to correct areas where improvement is needed.