Skills for Growth: Introducing Skills England

24 JUNE 12:20 – 13:20

Growth Zone

ABOUT THIS SESSION

This session introduces delegates to Skills England. Co-CEO Sarah Maclean will outline the organisation's vision for better skills for better jobs, share insights from initial findings, and explain how Skills England intends to work in partnership with providers and stakeholders to co-create practical solutions that drive growth and opportunity.

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND THIS SESSION

This is your opportunity to influence the work of a major new player in the skills system. Delegates will gain early insight into Skills England's mission and approach, learn how to get involved, and contribute their own views on how the organisation can work most effectively with training providers. If you want to be part of shaping a more coherent, responsive, and impactful skills landscape, this session is essential.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND THIS SESSION

Leaders of independent training providers, policy and strategy leads, employer engagement managers, and regional skills planners with a stake in shaping a more joined-up, demand-led skills system. Ideal for those looking to collaborate with Skills England and contribute to national reform efforts.

SPEAKER OVERVIEW

Sarah is the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Skills England, job sharing with Tessa Griffiths. She has more than 20 years' experience in the public sector including roles in the Department for Education and Cabinet Office.
