Developing your confidence - supporting learners with additional learning support needs

MONDAY 23 JUNE

TEACHING & LEARNING Zone

ABOUT THIS SESSION

This interactive session, led by experts Lou Doyle and David Lockhart-Hawkins, will help you build the knowledge and confidence to effectively support learners with Additional Learning Support (ALS) needs. Learn how to identify needs early, design inclusive programmes, and confidently claim Learning Support Funding (LSF).

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND THIS SESSION

Gain practical tools, insights, and clarity on how to support ALS learners while meeting funding and inspection expectations. Leave with increased confidence and ready-to-implement strategies for your organisation.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND THIS SESSION

ALS coordinators, learner support teams, curriculum and programme leads, quality managers, and funding/compliance officers. Especially relevant for staff responsible for identifying learner needs, designing inclusive delivery, and making accurate LSF claims.
