

Benefits of becoming an ATP member

'For the Teacher by the teacher'

Cutting-Edge Professional Development:

Enjoy member-only discounts for our renowned annual ATP Conference and exclusive CPD webinars, led by leading academics and practitioners.

A Thriving Professional Network:

Connect with hundreds of fellow psychology teachers. Share best practice, seek advice, and collaborate within a supportive and knowledgeable community, giving you access to guidance on issues relating to psychology across all areas of psychology teaching.

'ATP Today' Magazine:

Receive our acclaimed, printed publication three times a year, packed with pedagogical insights, the latest psychological research, and essential curriculum updates.

A National Voice:

Be represented by an organisation that actively advocates for the interests of psychology teachers and students at a national level. ATP provides a platform for you to have your say on issues relating to teaching and learning, including influencing government policy-making.
