

CARLA COMPAGNO

Head of Mobility Services (Travel, M&E, Fleet)

Siemens Energy

Election Address

Why I am Standing:

With over 20 years of experience in the global travel and procurement sectors, I am standing for the ITT Board to give back to an industry that has defined my career. Having held leadership roles at Siemens Energy, Amazon, Sony, and the United Nations, I offer a unique view of our ecosystem—as a buyer, a supplier, and a policy-maker.

What I Will Bring to the ITT Board:

- Strategic Global Perspective: Expertise in managing large-scale, complex travel programs and a deep understanding of the EMEA and APAC markets.
- Governance & Transformation: A good experience in applying risk, change management, and corporate governance, ensuring the ITT remains resilient and forward-thinking.
- A Commitment to Sustainability: Proven success in integrating ESG into travel strategies, helping the Institute lead the conversation on the future of green travel.

My goal is to bridge the gap between corporate travel and the broader tourism landscape, advocating for professional excellence and mentoring the next generation of industry talent. I would be honoured to contribute my time and expertise to the continued success of the ITT.

Biography

Carla is a global executive with over 20 years of leadership experience across the travel, procurement, and humanitarian sectors. Currently Head of Global Mobility Services at Siemens Energy, she oversees a €400M global portfolio, driving innovation, sustainable sourcing and team development.

With an MBA from Henley Business School, formal trainings in project, risk and change management, corporate governance and cybersecurity, Carla offers a unique view of the industry—having led travel programs for global companies like Amazon and Sony, navigated complex international organizations' operations with the United Nations, WFP and ICRC, and held senior commercial roles at British Airways, CWT, FCm, while based in Asia, UK and several European countries

Carla is committed to leveraging this cross-functional, multi-cultural expertise to support the ITT Board in advancing professional excellence and sustainability across the travel and tourism landscape.

Contact Details

carlacompagno@gmail.com / <https://www.linkedin.com/in/ccompagno/>