ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Please join us for the much anticipated continuation of the successful workshop series under a slightly different name Naturally Fractured Rocks (NFR) to be held in Muscat (Oman) in October 2024 under the theme “Naturally Fractured Rocks for Sustainable Energy can virtual reality and other emerging tools help improve our understanding of subsurface fluid movements?”

The 3-day event will feature a 1-day field trip to Jebel Madar to characterize and understand the fracture systems in this structure, which is considered an unaltered analogue to nearby subsurface field developments.
