ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

We are excited to announce the First EAGE Workshop on East Canada Offshore Exploration. This workshop will take place between 15-17 November 2021 in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada, & Online.

Recent Call-for-Bids results in Newfoundland's offshore have demonstrated a renewed interest in the province and Eastern Canada's offshore potential. The area poses various geological and operational challenges, which are addressed through an effective collaboration between stakeholders, including Canadian Federal and Provincial Authorities, IOCs, independent operators, geological, geophysical and drilling service companies as well as academia.

We are confident that the latest advances in geological and geophysical sciences, as well as drilling and specific HSE and operational requirements in difficult environment will be a major feature of the workshop. It will offer a unique opportunity to share and transfer knowledge on potential and proven plays, petroleum systems, geodynamic context of the North Atlantic (West and East) and Labrador Sea as well as economic conditions under which development projects can be launched in such environment.

AIMS OF THIS WORKSHOP

The data and knowledge presented may be mutually beneficial to reevaluate existing or under explored petroleum provinces offshore Western Europe, North Africa and North America.

TOPICS

The committee would like to encourage you to submit your abstracts pertaining to offshore Eastern Canada (Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia, Nunavut) and also Greenland and NE Atlantic on the following specific topics:

Regional perspective

- North Atlantic (East and West) and Labrador Sea petroleum provinces
- Geological and Geophysical challenges
- Regional Prospectivity
- Exploration risk mitigation

Role of technology

- Advances in seismic imaging and pre-drill characterization
- Metocean risks and challenges in North Atlantic
- Logistical challenges and opportunities
- Development concepts in sub arctic environments
- Time to first production

Economy, Environmental and Regulatory

- Specific challenges of regional and geographical context.
- Chances of economic success

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The technical committee invites submissions of 2-4 page abstracts until 2 August 2021. To submit your abstract and read all guidelines please visit the event website via events.eage.org.
