

Born in Brazil, Ms Daniela Pereira's main responsibilities include developing and updating electronic and printed communications on EDCTP-supported research and capacity building activities. She also supports the organisation of the EDCTP Forum. Moreover, she is responsible for the functional management of all EDCTP IT systems. Daniela has previously worked in marketing and sales, has a certificate in Web Design and Development and a Diploma in Public Relations.