OneTogether UK Expert Conference 2026

Dedicated to reducing the risk of surgical site infections

Dear Colleague,

It's our pleasure to announce the launch of our OneTogether 2026 conference in Birmingham taking place on Thursday 12th March 2026.

OneTogether offers you the opportunity to join our conference and exhibition giving you the chance to engage with an outstanding professional delegate profile with a goal of improving surgical care to reduce surgical site infection.

OneTogether is a partnership between the leading professional organisations IPS, CSC, Solventum, AfPP and CODP with an enhanced interest in the prevention of Surgical Site Infections (SSIs). Our mission is to promote and support the spread and adoption of best practice to prevent SSIs across the surgical patient pathway. By connecting interested professionals in surgery, infection prevention and key industry partners for the health care community we strive to improve overall patient care.

OneTogether aims to:

- Raise the profile of surgical site infection
- Share a suite of resources to support quality improvement in surgical care, based on current guidance
- Engage healthcare professionals and institutions to make a difference at every level to reduce SSI and improve patient outcomes
- Share best practice across all specialties
- Leverage the strength and reach of professional associations, industry partners and online platforms to educate and engage

We hope you can join us!
