

A Rich curriculum for ALL 2021

- Welcome to day 2 of this year's Language World Conference online.
- A first for our annual celebration of language teaching and learning
- Do catch up with each other via the hub on this VLE platform during the event
- Add your questions to the chat during the sessions

- A very special welcome to student teachers, including British Council Scholars, and NQT colleagues
- Take full advantage of events at your local Branch, Network or Hub
- ALL works with and supports language teachers working at every stage of their career
- You are never too young to get involved! Everyone's membership and support at whatever stage you are in your career are vital to ensure that ALL grows and flourishes

Do get involved!

- ALL Council members and President Elect vacancies this summer. Watch out for our Upcoming Elections - get in touch with a council member or a member of the all board if you'd like to discuss further
- Volunteer – we need lots of different skills
- Lead a Session at your Branch, Network, Hub or at Language World in 2022
- Find out more – get in touch with Trustees or ALL Council Members today.
- CLIL 2021 Saturday June 19th Register FREE here

Programme

I'm delighted to welcome all our speakers:

- 50 sessions
- updates from NCELP and the HOLT
- Main talks from Michael Wardle, Jane Driver and Marie Peterson – all the way from Australia
- Key notes from Professor Li Wei and Professor Do Coyle
- Plenary Debate this evening looking at priorities for languages across the UK with Tonia Antoniazzi MP (APPG), Neil Kenny (British Academy) Do Coyle (Scotland) and Rene Koglbauer (ALL England/N Ireland)

Thank you for supporting ALL

Michel Thomas®
