Welcome

The organising committee members would like to invite you to support the 29th Annual Conference of the International Society for Anthrozoology (ISAZ), which is taking place at the University of Liverpool from 29th June to 3rd July, 2020. The dates include three days of main conference events and two days of pre - and post - conference satellite events. It is anticipated that over 200 international delegates will attend.

Conference Venue

The conference will take place in the Central Teaching Hub at the University of Liverpool, which is situated in Liverpool City Centre. The city of Liverpool has a lot to offer. It is a modern, vibrant city, proud of its rich heritage and world trade roots, famous for its friendly people, and known worldwide for football and the “Fab Four”, the Beatles.

About ISAZ

The Host organisation is the International Society for Anthrozoology (ISAZ). ISAZ was formed in 1991 as a supportive organisation for the scientific and scholarly study of Human-Animal interactions. ISAZ is a non-profit, non-political organisation with a world-wide, multi-disciplinary membership of students, scholars and interested professionals.

Local Host Committee

- Dr Carri Westgarth, Lecturer in Human-Animal Interaction, University of Liverpool
- Dr Chris Pearson, Senior Lecturer in Twentieth Century History, University of Liverpool
- Dr Diahann Gallard, Senior Lecturer in the School of Education, Liverpool John Moores University

UK Scientific Advisory Committee

- Professor Marie Fox, Queen Victoria Professor of Law, in the School of Law and Social Justice, University of Liverpool
- Professor Daniel Mills, Specialist in Clinical Animal Behaviour, University of Lincoln
- Professor Jo Williams, Professor of Applied Development Psychology in Clinical and Health Psychology, University of Edinburgh
- Dr Anne McBride, Senior Lecturer within Psychology, University of Southampton
- Professor Rob Christley, Honorary Professor of Epidemiology and One Health, University of Liverpool

The Conference Theme for 2020

The theme for the 2020 ISAZ Conference is 'One Health, One Welfare: Wellbeing for all in human-animal interactions'. We recognise that the health and welfare of humans and animals are inextricably linked: from welfare-friendly farming and safe food production to positive interactions with our companion animals and sustainability of our natural world.

The 2020 theme will be complemented with topics representing the wider field of anthrozoology. Presentations include poster sessions, talks from international researchers, and several plenary speakers who are at the forefront of their fields.

Confirmed speakers and events include:

Keynote: Prof Nicola Williams, University of Liverpool
The link between antimicrobial resistance in humans and animals

Keynote: Manoj Guatam, Jane Goodall Institute Nepal
One Health One Welfare in animal conservation

Keynote: Prof Abigail Woods, King's College London
Intersections in histories of Human and Animal Health

Discussion sessions: "Hot topics in Anthrozoology"

Pre-Satellite event: Putting the animal at the centre of 'Animal Assistance'.

Post-Satellite event: Human Behaviour Change for Animals: Designing interventions and measuring their impact. Hosted by Human Behaviour Change for Animals.

Attendees:

This meeting brings together a diverse group of researchers, corporate employees, animal charity workers and professionals. These individuals represent a broad range of fields, including animal welfare, anthropology, ethology, history, medicine, psychology, sociology and veterinary medicine. You will have the chance to interact with knowledgeable, talented people from all over the world!

Why support the ISAZ 2020 conference?

As a supporter you will have the opportunity to:

- Network face to face with leading names in the field of human-animal interaction
- Promote new products and programmes that raise awareness of your brand
- Elevate your company profile and enhance your visibility in the field
- Build stronger relationships with researchers and practitioners
- Develop new partnerships within an international community

We welcome the opportunity to tailor any package to meet marketing and budgetary objectives. We will work with all sponsors to ensure that we maximise your investment to your satisfaction.

The sooner you confirm your sponsorship the greater level of exposure we can offer.
