Calling start-ups and scale-ups in Life Sciences & Health!

Are you a driven company with a bold idea in life sciences or health? Looking for the right investors to fuel your growth? Want to get your innovation noticed by the people who can help make it happen?

Then mark your calendar for 25 and 26 March, 2026! At the Health Holland Global Investor Forum, together with Innovation for Health, we are offering a unique chance to:

- Practice your pitch in front of a targeted audience before the big day, so you're confident and ready.
- Present your innovation to investors and open the door to funding and partnerships.
- Engage directly with investors who are eager to hear your story and explore collaboration.
- Boost your entrepreneurial skills with our programme sessions designed to help you succeed.
- Connect with industry leaders and fellow innovators at the Innovation for Health event.

Register now and take advantage of the early bird deadline on October 31, 2025:
