Innovation for Health 2027 is coming up!

Join us on 11 March 2027 in Utrecht for Innovation for Health, a leading European conference for professionals shaping the future of Life Sciences & Health.

Bringing together 800+ participants, 70+ expert speakers, and 50+ exhibitors, the event connects innovators, investors, researchers, policymakers, healthcare providers, corporates, start-ups, patient organisations, and tech transfer professionals from across the Netherlands and the international health innovation ecosystem.

Under the theme “Transforming Healthcare Together”, I4H 2027 serves as a key meeting point across the full innovation value chain—where science meets capital, ideas meet implementation, and cross-border partnerships are formed to accelerate the development and adoption of impactful healthcare solutions.

The event offers a unique platform for networking, knowledge exchange, business development, visibility, and collaboration across the ecosystem.
