The Era of Human-made Diseases -
Innovative Medicines for Lifestyle Diseases

Dutch Medicines Days 2024

The Dutch Medicines Days bring together all involved in drug discovery, drug development, drug use, and general pharmaceutical sciences in order to exchange the latest scientific insights, results, experiences and information to build and strengthen collaboration at national and international level. At the DMD conference esteemed and young experts from academia, industry, and regulatory domains converge to explore cutting-edge research, novel therapeutic interventions, and forward-thinking strategies in drug innovation and drug development. Through keynote addresses, deep-dive sessions, and poster presentations, attendees will have the opportunity to gain insights, exchange ideas, and forge collaborations that shape the future of healthcare.
