Global Investor Forum

25 - 26 march 2026 | Utrecht

Bridging the Gap to Shape the Future of Healthcare!

On 25–26 March 2026, Innovation for Health and the Global Investor Forum create a focused, high-quality meeting place for investment-ready health & life sciences start-ups, scale-ups, and active investors.

25 March | Global Investor Forum

The Global Investor Forum is designed for companies preparing for growth and for investors actively deploying capital. Up to 30 selected start-ups pitch directly to an audience of 100+ life sciences investors and key industry leaders. In addition to pitching sessions, the program includes targeted sessions and trainings aimed at strengthening entrepreneurial skills and investment readiness.

26 March | Innovation for Health

With 800+ high-level participants, 70+ expert speakers, and 50+ exhibitors, Innovation for Health is the Netherlands' leading platform for health and life sciences innovation. The conference offers insights into market trends, emerging technologies, and breakthrough innovations, as well as one-on-one meetings via the partneringONE platform.

Together, these events open the door for innovative companies and investment firms to connect with the people and capital shaping the future of healthcare.

“Both events highlighted the power of collaboration in advancing Life Sciences & Health innovation. From insightful talks and pitches to networking, we saw firsthand how teamwork can inspire solutions to the industry’s biggest challenges.”

Attendee 2025

“It was fantastic to connect with fellow innovators, investors, and ecosystem builders at large. The Dutch ecosystem is a powerhouse for health innovation, and it’s inspiring to see many technologies achieving great recognition”

Join as an Investor

The Global Investor Forum connects you to Europe's most promising health and life sciences scale-ups, making engagement with high-potential investments both efficient and impactful.

- + Early insight into emerging innovation: meet a selected group of investment-ready health & life sciences start-ups and scale-ups
- + Position yourself in the ecosystem: Strengthen your visibility and network among founders, corporates, policymakers, and fellow investors active in health & life sciences
- + Efficient partnering: pre-schedule and host one-on-one meetings with innovators and peers at your own investor table via partneringONE
