

Working at GenDx

Advancing transplantation through innovative molecular diagnostics

Mattijs Punt PhD – Junior Project Manager R&D

Who am I?

Today's presentation

What will be discussed

- GenDx as a company
- The two roles I have had within the company
- How did I end up at GenDx

Vision

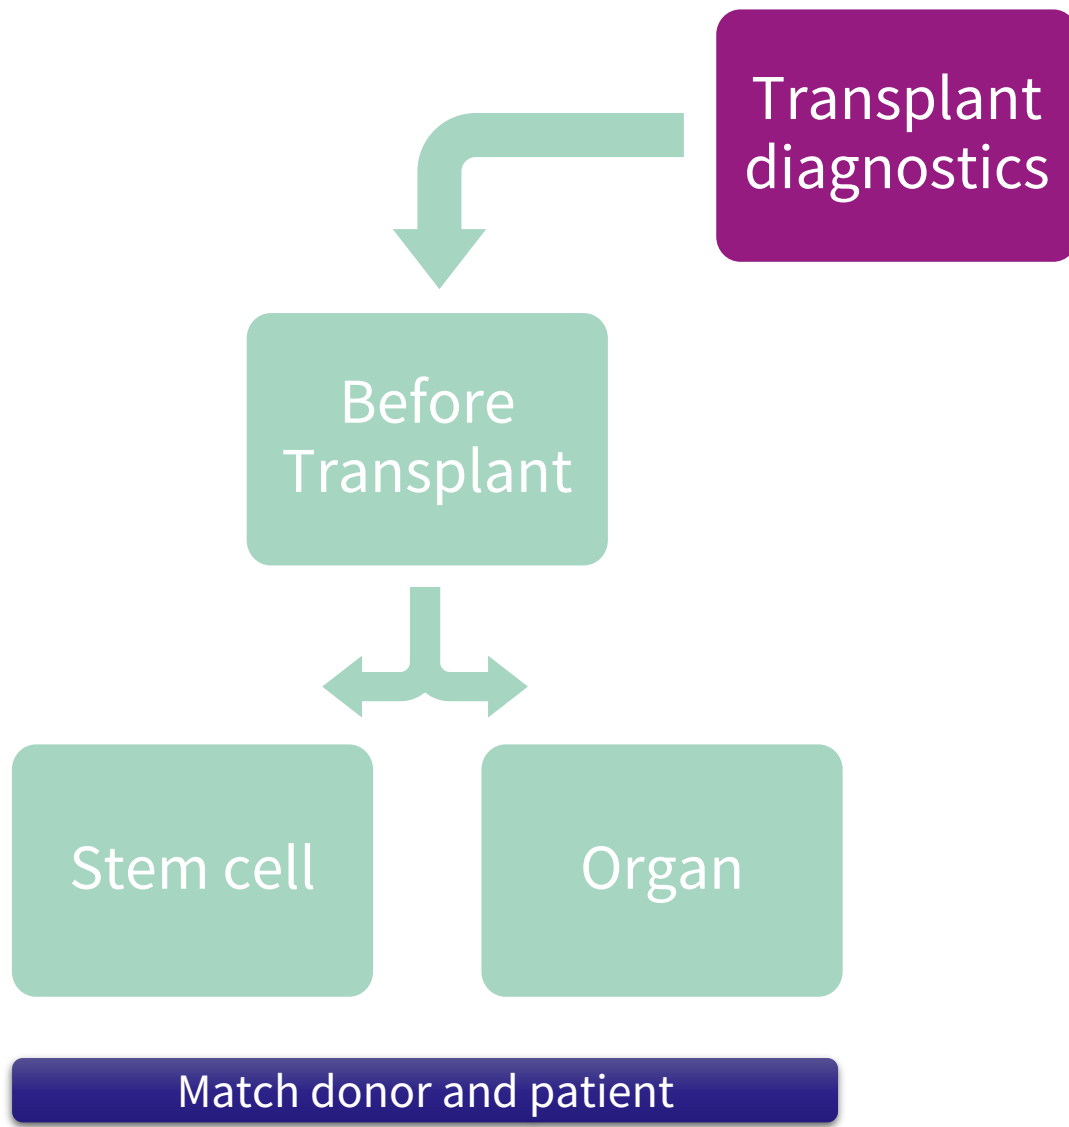

Improve the quality of life and survival of transplant patients

eurobio gendx

Mission

Advance the field of transplantation by offering excellent molecular diagnostic tools and sharing knowledge

Match donor and patient

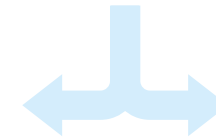

Match donor and patient

Transplant
diagnostics

After Transplant

Stem cell

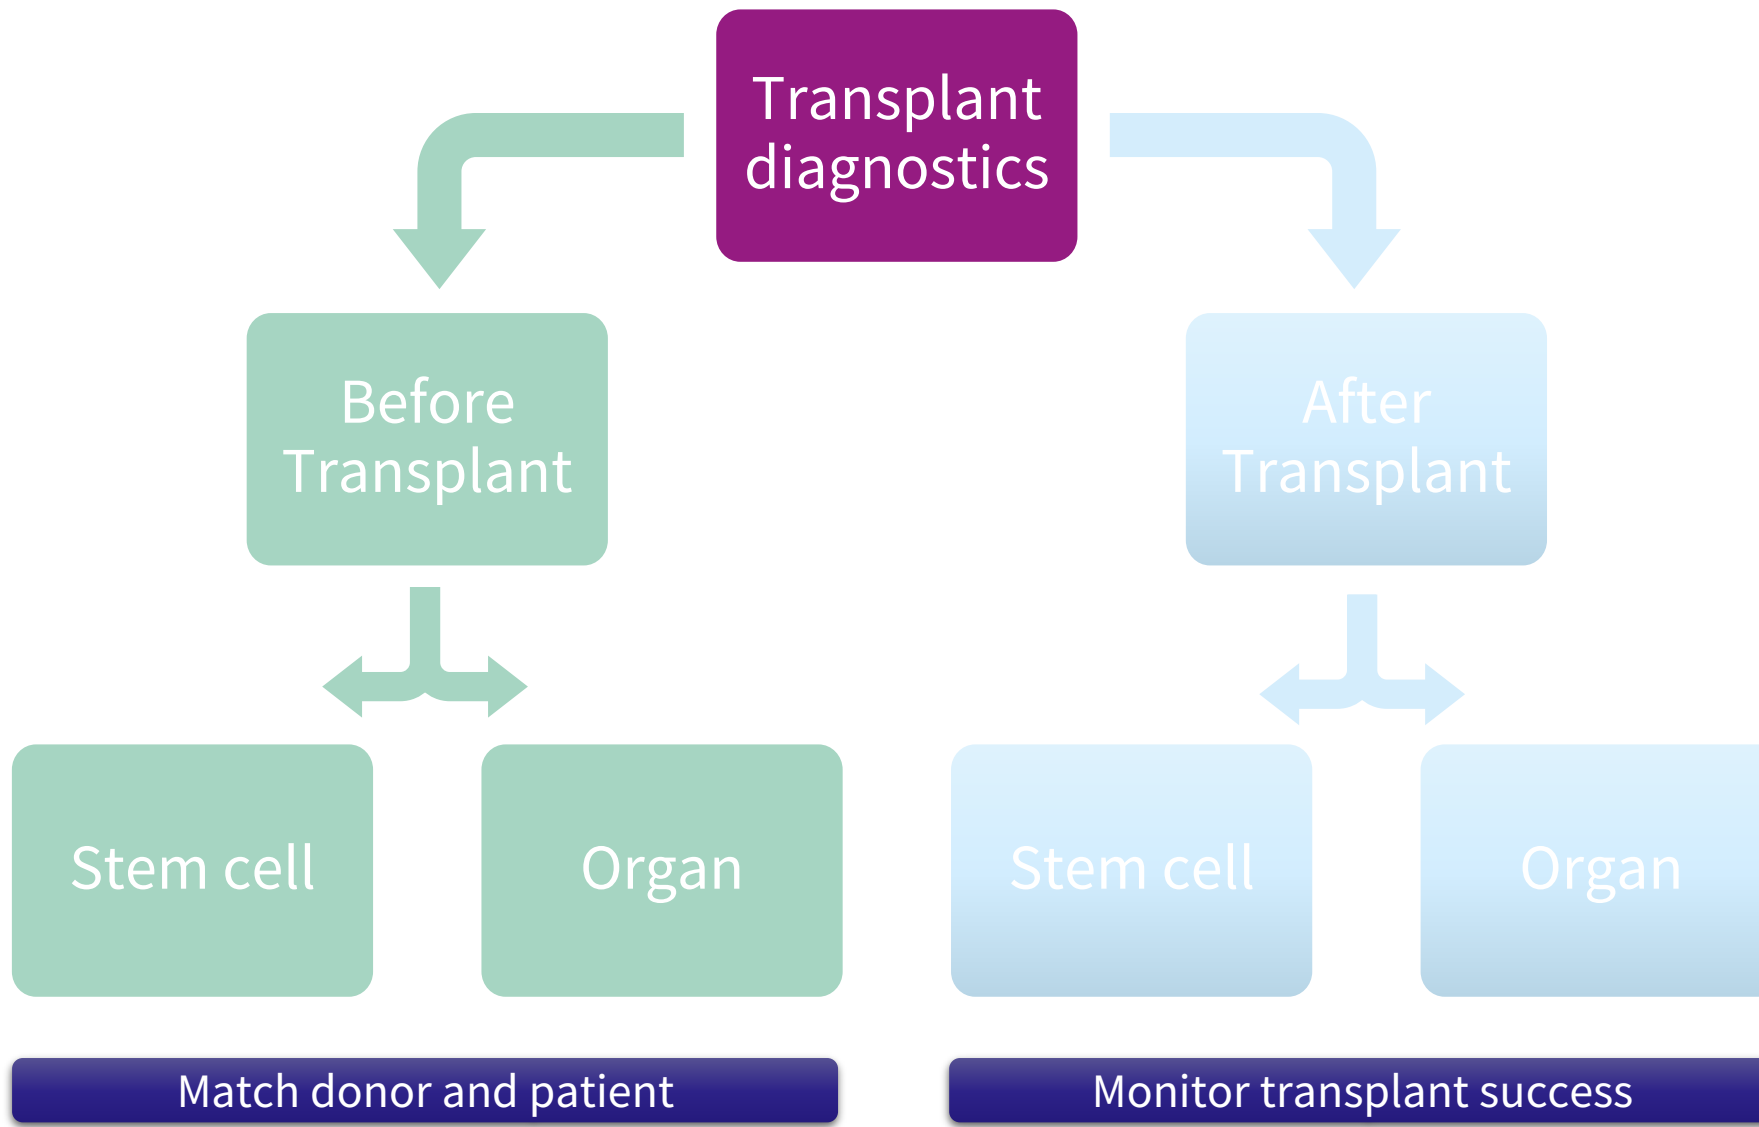

Organ

Monitor transplant success

Monitor transplant success

GenDx products

Match donor and patient

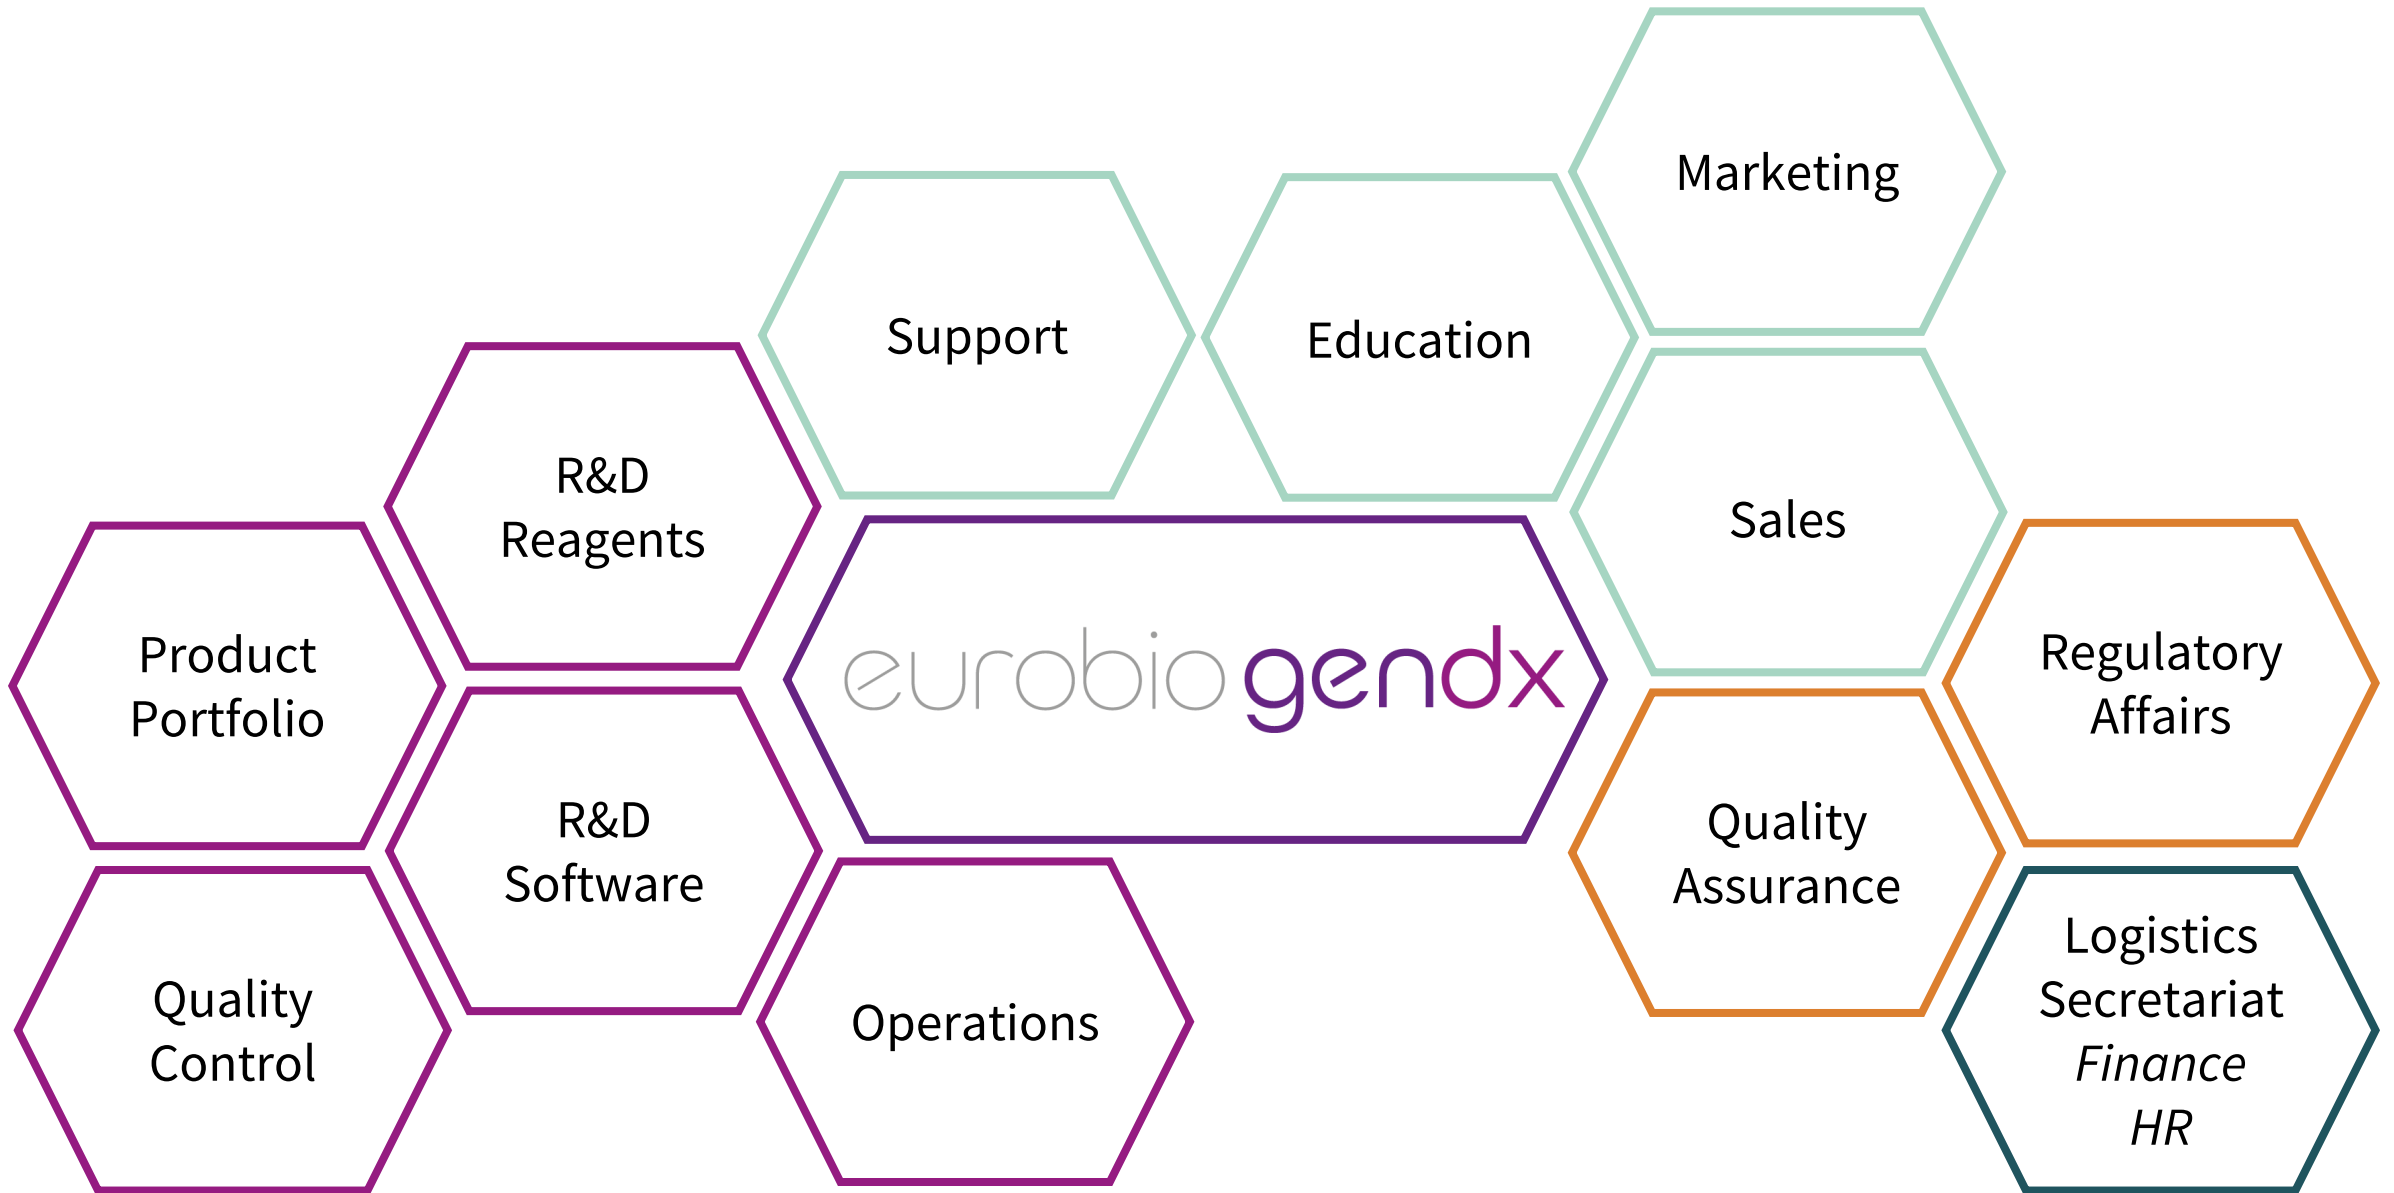

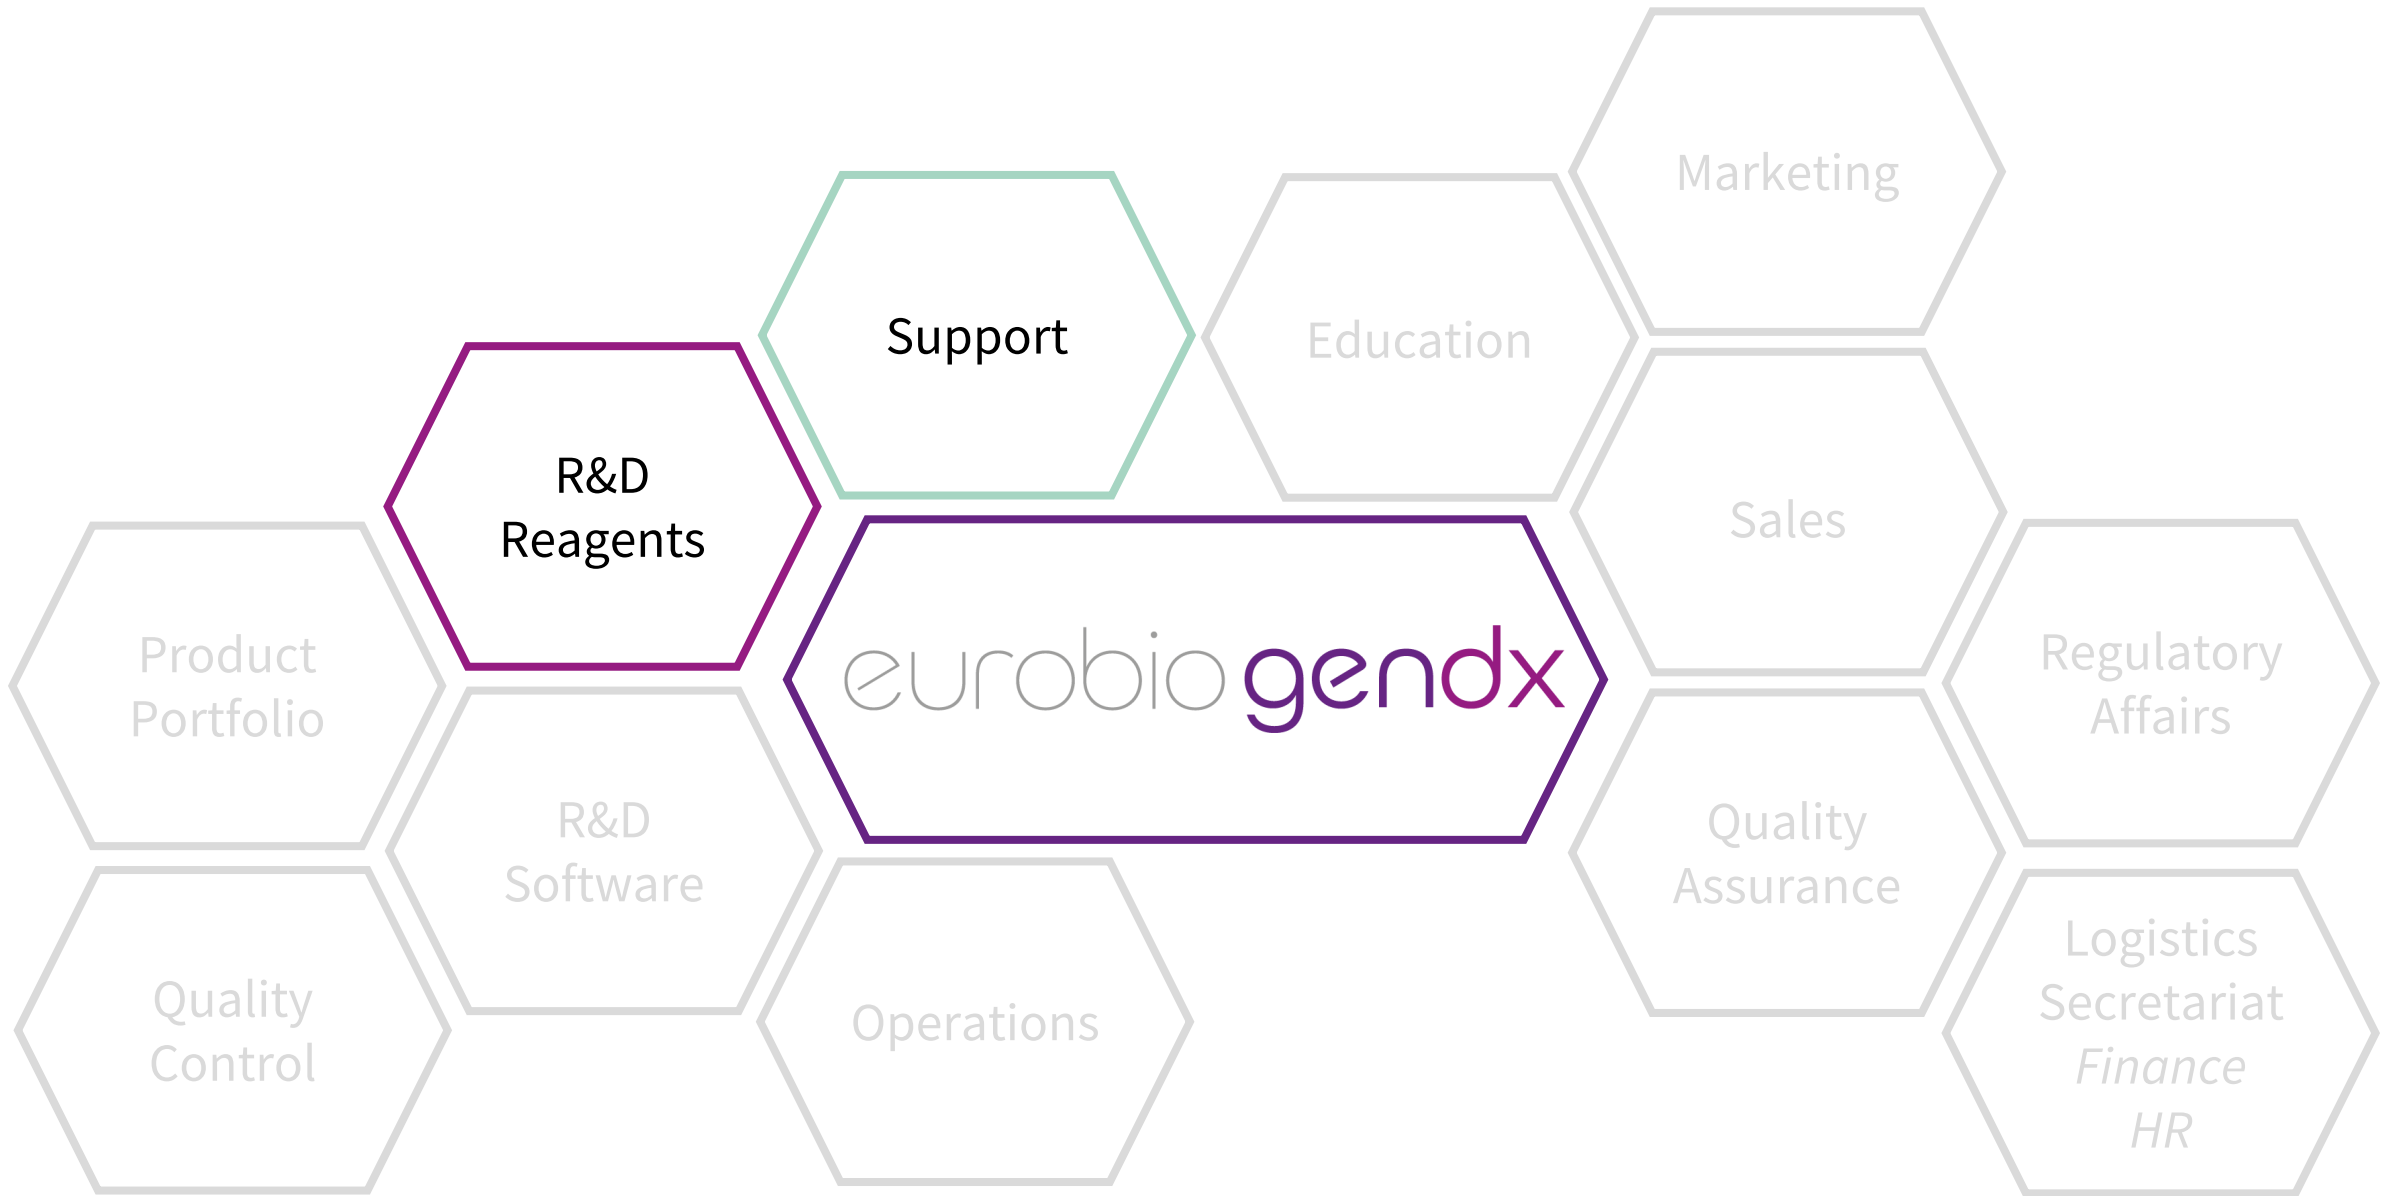

Monitor transplant success

Used by hospital laboratories

Working at GenDx : Technical Support Specialist

What is it like

Become an expert on GenDx portfolio

Help customers

Answer questions
Analyze customer cases
Solve puzzles

Collaborate with other teams

Better insight into what industry has to offer

Grow to new position within GenDx

Working at GenDx : Jr. Project Manager R&D

What is it like

Responsible for high quality products (IVDR)

Manage project team

Collaborate and coordinate with other teams

Being at forefront of new developments

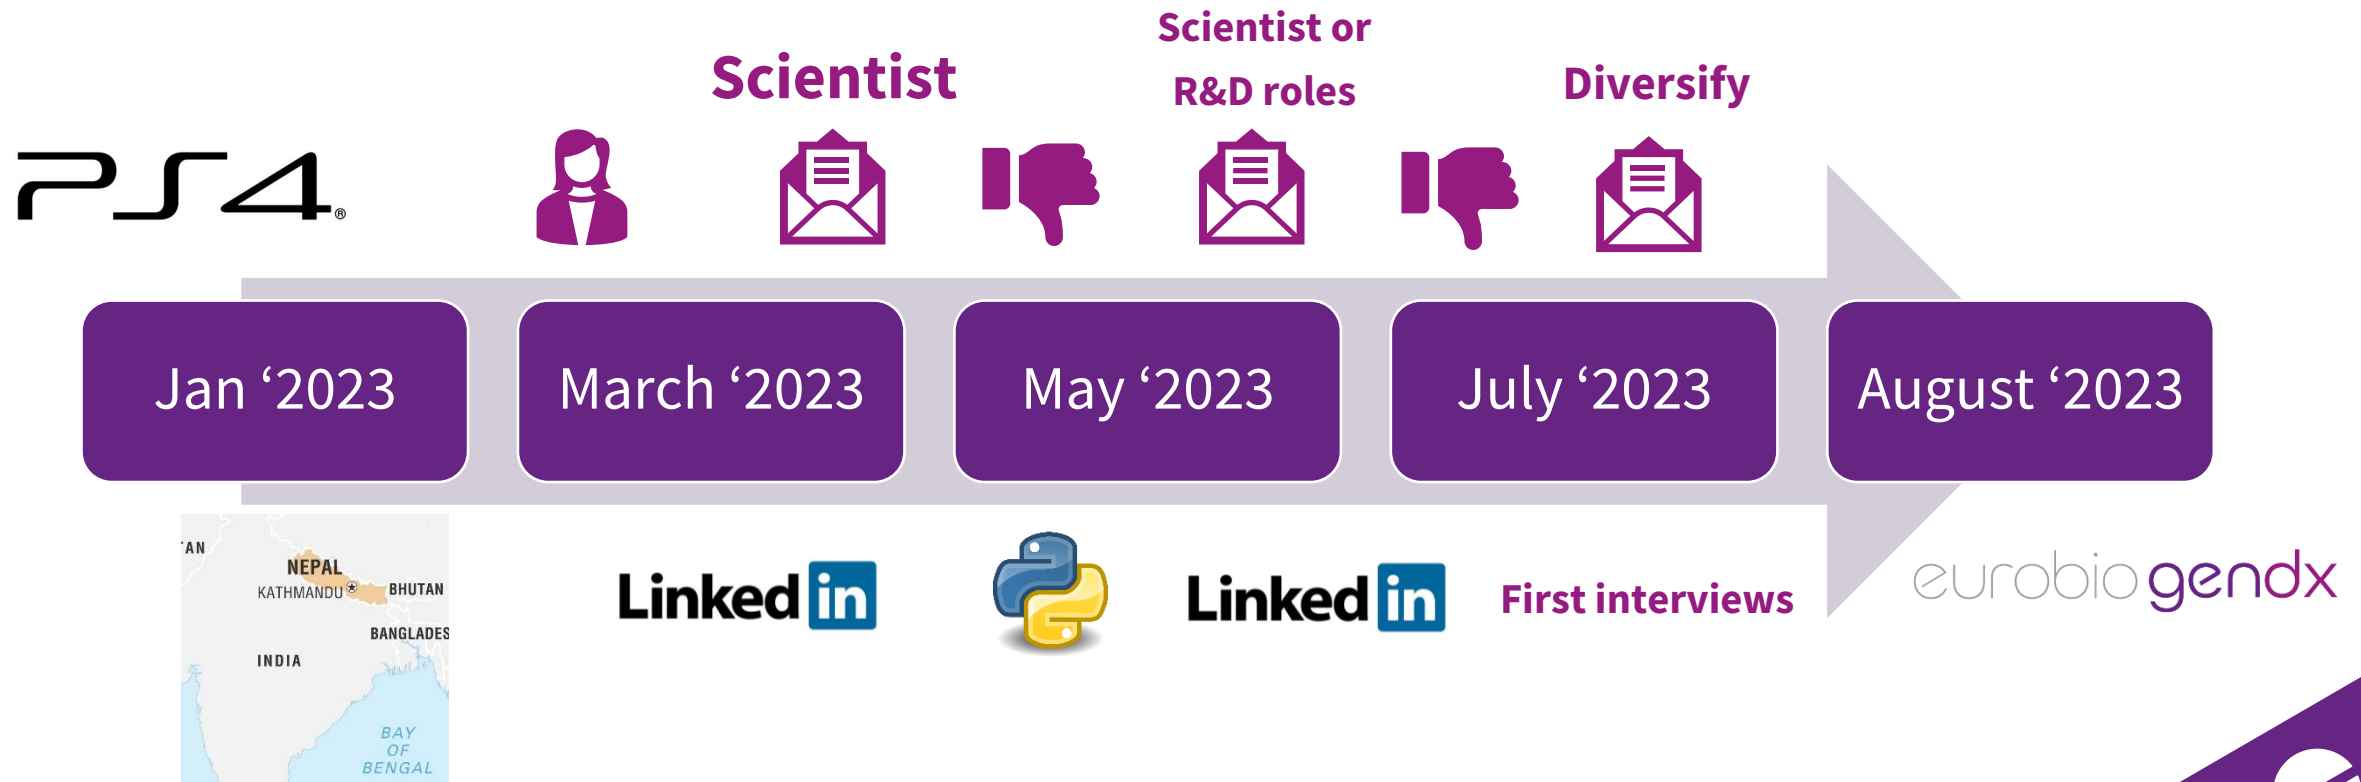

Personal growth

How did I get to GenDx

PhD contract ended per January 2023 -> got hired at GenDx in August 2023

What was the unemployment period like?

Wrap up

Main take-aways

Be patient but persistent

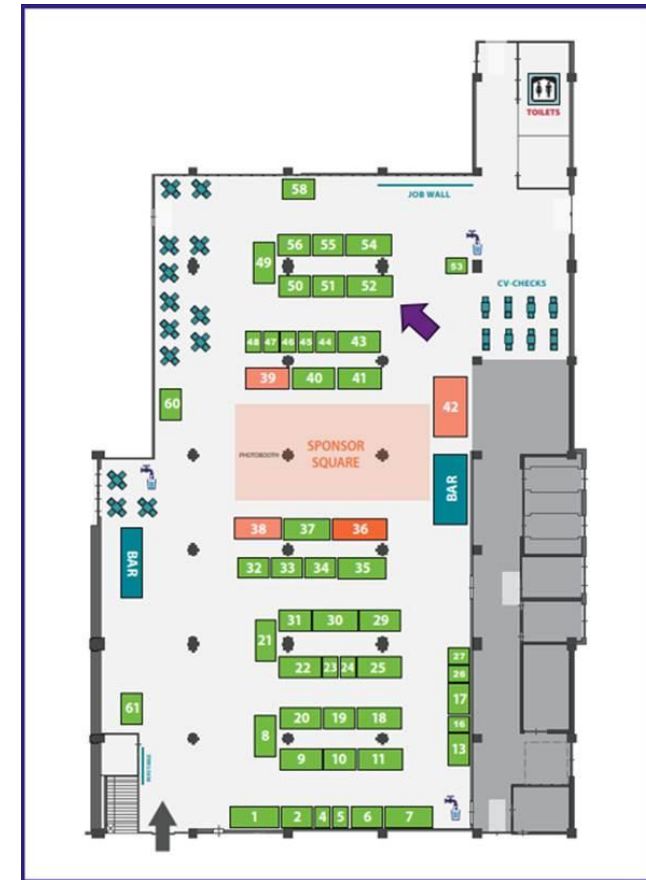

Things can change really quickly

It helps to have an open mindset

Feel free to approach me or my colleagues after the session at booth 52

<https://www.gendx.com/about-us/careers/>

