Nau mai haere mai Welcome to Ōtautahi Christchurch

Tourism New Zealand and ICCA are pleased to partner with ChristchurchNZ and Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre to host the first in-person ICCASkills course to be held in New Zealand.

We welcome events professionals who will have the opportunity to gain the globally recognised CICE (Certified International Convention Executive) qualification from ICCASkills, whilst networking with industry experts and their peers and experiencing Ōtautahi Christchurch as an innovative business events destination.

Central city map

Christchurch central city map showing Te Pae Christchurch Convention Centre and the main hotels in the central city, all within close proximity and easy walking distance.

The map also shows some of the main highlights in the central city including key venues and attractions, as well as retail and hospitality hubs.

Our central city is compact and easily walkable – everything is close ensuring your delegates will enjoy experiencing the beauty of our new central city.

Getting around

GETTING TO CHRISTCHURCH IS EASY

After flying into New Zealand's second largest airport it is a short 15 minute drive to get into the central city. The city is flat and compact, making it easy for delegates to move between the conference venue and their hotel.

Airport transfers

The central city is located just 10 kilometres from Christchurch Airport. There is an airport bus service into the Central city bus interchange. There are regular shuttle and taxi services into the city as well as an electric bus service, and electric car share schemes.

Walk, scooter or bicycle

Explore our flat compact city by foot — what better way to experience a new destination. There are several electric scooter and bicycle share schemes — perfect to explore and cover more distance while enjoying the outdoors.

Public transport

Christchurch has an excellent bus service, with the Interchange right in the heart of the city. Delegates can travel inexpensively by bus to most major attractions around the city.

Pre and post tours

There are numerous options for delegates to explore the wider city and region before or after the meeting, taking in some of the South Island's incredible highlights. Mountains to oceans, vineyards and thermal resorts all within an hour of the city.

Train

The Coastal Pacific and TranzAlpine train journeys are truly spectacular, and both depart from Christchurch, providing amazing experiences for delegates post-conference.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

Connected and accessible

Accessible from anywhere in the world, New Zealand is just a meal, movie and a sleep away.

With stunning landscapes, welcoming locals and so much to see and do, Christchurch is the ultimate destination for ICCA Skills 2024.
