Liability

TT2026 shall not be held liable, either directly or indirectly, for any problematic issue that may occur within the framework of the conference and its organisation, not only with respect to the organisers but also with respect to third parties (airline companies, hotels, transportation, taxis, etc.) while in the performance of duties or services even indirectly related to the conference.

This contractual liability exemption clause is equally valid in case of an event of force majeure which leads to the disruption and/or the partial or complete cancellation of the conference programme, for reasons not attributable to TT2026. An event of force majeure is defined as an unforeseen and exceptional event – be it pandemic, climatic, environmental, political or socio-economic – and does not imply any limitation. Furthermore, the delegate also agrees to absolve TT2026 from any responsibility and liability with regard to travel insurance and related costs or claims. It is solely up to the individual to seek out and purchase or otherwise obtain the necessary insurance with regards to their travel, etc. and/or to independently issue a claim against any third party that may be responsible for direct or indirect losses or damages caused to or suffered by the delegate enroute to and from the conference.

Validity of Passports

It is the responsibility of the delegate to ensure that your passport is valid for travel, and we recommend that you check with your local Embassy before travelling. Please note that some countries require your passport to be valid for up to 3 months from the date of return.
