in partnership with Diamond Light Source

IOP Institute of Physics

The next Interdisciplinary Surface Science Conference (ISSC-25) will be held in Oxford in the spring of 2025. The ISSC is the main surface science conference of the UK and attracts researchers across academia, industry, and the national laboratories.

The event focuses on all fundamental and applied aspects of surface and interfaces, including physical properties and chemical reactions on surface. It is organised by the Thin Films and Surfaces group of the IOP with a local organising committee consisting of staff scientist of the surface science beamlines of Diamond Light Source and of HarwellXPS. The conference includes a visit to the Harwell campus for lab tours of Diamond Light Source and HarwellXPS

Organising committee:

- Cephise Cacho, Diamond Light Source
- Francesco Carlo, Diamond Light Source
- David Duncan, Diamond Light Source / University of Nottingham
- Georg Held, Diamond Light Source
- Larissa Ishibe Veiga, Diamond Light Source
- Chris Nicklin, Diamond Light Source
- Robert Palgrave, HarwellXPS / UCL
- Matthijs van Spronsen, Diamond Light Source
- Robert Weatherup, Oxford University

Exhibition

An exhibition will be held alongside the conference providing companies and manufacturers the opportunity to network with an engaged and captive audience. The exhibition will be held alongside refreshments and posters in the networking area.

The exhibition is an integral part of the event programme and delegate experience with time allocated for exhibitors to meet and interact with a wide range of attendees as well as other vendors.

Why exhibit

- Demonstrate the range and quality of your products and services to a specialised audience
- Provide invaluable exposure and connect with industry and academic representatives
- Target new customers and develop existing relationships
- Showcase new or upgraded product ranges, as well as reaffirm your current offer
- Exhibiting can build positivity, trust, and loyalty
- Contributes significantly to the promotion and finances of the conference, reducing the overall cost of managing the event and enabling a higher level of participation, particularly young researchers, and therefore helping to develop the physics community.

Exhibition package

The exhibition package includes:

- Exhibit over the full 3-days of the conference
- 1 x table and 2 chairs
- 1 x complimentary conference registration which includes:
  - Access to the sessions, which also includes poster, exhibitor and networking
  - Lunch and refreshments on each day
  - A ticket to the conference dinner (if there is one in the social programme)
- Content on the conference website which includes:
  - 150 (max.) word profile
  - Social media links
  - Company logo with a link to your homepage
- Opportunity to promote 1 job from within your organisation.

Exhibitor information

The exhibition will be located in the same space as refreshments, lunch and posters.

Exhibitors will be able to set up on the morning of 31 March and set down in the afternoon of 2 April. Further information with addresses and exact timings will be sent closer to the event.

Rate: £750 + VAT

Space is limited and allocated strictly on a first-come, first-served basis.

VAT is calculated at the current rate of 20%.

If the rate is altered as a result of government legislation, charges may be adjusted accordingly.

The Institute's VAT registration number is 461-6000-84.
