INVITATION

Welcome to the American & Global College of Endometriosis Specialists (AGCES) Annual Meeting 2026
March 19–21, 2026 | Fontainebleau Hotel | Las Vegas, Nevada

We are delighted to invite you to the American & Global College of Endometriosis Specialists (AGCES) Annual Meeting 2026. Building on the success of last year's groundbreaking event, this year's meeting will take place March 19–21, 2026, at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada.

This year's theme, "Pioneering the Future: AI and Innovation in Endometriosis, Adenomyosis, and Adenomyoma Care," highlights the latest advances in artificial intelligence, surgical innovation, emerging technologies, and basic science research that are transforming the landscape of diagnosis, treatment, and long-term management of endometriosis, adenomyosis, and adenomyoma.

Join world-renowned experts—pioneers in minimally invasive and robotic surgery, AI in medicine and surgery, and leading researchers—for three days of cutting-edge education, collaborative panels, live surgical broadcasts, and unparalleled networking opportunities. Sessions will span a wide range of disciplines, including gynecology, reproductive medicine, pain management, fertility, oncology, obstetrical complications, basic science, and more.

The program will emphasize a truly multidisciplinary approach. And more importantly, it will highlight the global collaboration needed to advance care for those affected by these complex conditions.

Whether attendees are gynecologic surgeons, surgeons of any specialty, obstetricians, internists, pediatricians, scientists, allied health professionals, medical students, or advocates, this meeting offers our industry partners a valuable opportunity to engage with a multidisciplinary and globally connected community at the forefront of advancing care in this evolving field.

Highlights of the 2026 Meeting Include:

- Live surgery transmission from expert surgeons
- Groundbreaking research in AI, robotics, and omics
- Multidisciplinary panels and interactive breakout sessions
- Gala celebration
- Networking with global leaders in endometriosis care

We look forward to welcoming you to Las Vegas for what promises to be an inspiring, innovative, and impactful event.

Forward we go!
