

GLINIK
DRILLING TOOLS

OVERVIEW

KEY FACTS

Glinik Drilling Tools has been present in the drilling market for 140 years. The company is located in southern Poland in Gorlice.

- Since 2011 Glinik is owned by Polish family office TDJ, which controls 100% company shares.
- The company specializes in the production of Rollercone bits, PDC bits, Hole Openers/Reamers in a wide range of diameters, types and applications. Glinik is characterized by full production autonomy, with most of the manufacturing processes performed in-house.
- The Company's team constitutes of +230 employees (including +25 design/technology engineers on-site).

BUSINESS AREAS

Glinik products are widely used in industries such as:

- Energy (Oil & Gas, Geothermal, CCS),
- Mining ,
- Horizontal Directional Drilling (HDD),
- Hydrogeology/Waterwell,
- Geotechnics

CONTINUOUS DEVELOPMENT

- Glinik's Customers include top global players in drilling products & services
- Glinik has established Supply Chain and achieved Production process optimization through LEAN standards
- Glinik is developing its product portfolio by implementing innovations in areas such as: PDC and Rollercone bits, Process Automation, Laser Metal Deposition technology.

CORE PRODUCTS

