

YOUR PRIVACY IS IMPORTANT TO US

AMGEN CONSENT TO RECEIVE ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

Amgen remains committed to supporting you by facilitating scientific exchange and medical education, to advance best practice patient management and improved clinical outcomes. Therefore, I would like to suggest that if you have not already provided us consent for electronic communication that you agree below to formally provide your consent to interact with Amgen Australia in this way.

By consenting, you understand that we collect your personal information such as your name, contact information, location, and professional details, to manage our relationship with you and for our related administrative purposes. With your expressed consent, we may use your personal information to contact you and send you relevant administrative, promotional, marketing, educational and related information, that we think may interest you. Those communications may be made by email. Once registered, you can also manage your communication preference online. Subject to certain exceptions, permitted by law, you may request access to, or correction of, your personal information.

AMGEN PRIVACY STATEMENT

Amgen Australia collects your personal information to enable us to manage and promote our educational events and educational events convened by other organisations, follow up with you about your experience at these events and engage with you for the purpose of our promotional activities. For this purpose, we may disclose your personal information to Amgen Australia's related entities, as well as to trusted third parties and suppliers who assist us in providing our products and services, and market research agencies. These related entities and third parties may be located in other countries including the United States of America and in Europe and Asia. Amgen Australia remains accountable for all personal information it discloses and takes appropriate measures to ensure that the confidentiality of your information is safeguarded.
