

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Submission deadline: Friday 9 October 2026, 11:00pm

Word limit: Maximum 300 words (excluding references)

Notification of outcome: Authors will be informed during the week commencing Monday 2 November 2026.

We warmly welcome abstract submissions for the BRSS 11th Annual Meeting 2027 from all members of the Stereotactic Radiosurgery workforce and from all disciplines.

We encourage submissions covering a broad range of topics including but not limited to:

- Brain metastases and SRS outcomes
- Imaging, treatment planning and treatment response
- Radiosurgery techniques (single vs hypofractionation)
- Physics, QA, AI, contouring and motion management
- Dose measurement and verification
- Patient support, prehabilitation and allied health professional perspectives
- Vestibular schwannoma, pituitary tumours, AVMs
- Case reports and clinical series

To ensure the quality and relevance of abstracts, please adhere to the following guidelines:

1. Content - Abstracts should clearly describe the research, clinical experience, or innovative practices being presented. Please provide sufficient detail and clearly state the novelty of the work. This will ensure reviewers can make an appropriate assessment of its suitability.

Format should be:

- Background (clearly describing the context of the abstract)
- Aims/objectives
- Methods (ensure protocols e.g. dose and fractionation is clearly stated)
- Outcomes (ensure tables and figures are clearly labelled, and readable)
- Discussion (ensure that the relevance/impact is clear)

2. Word Count

Abstracts should not exceed a maximum of 300 words. Please ensure your abstract is within this limit, as longer abstracts will not be considered for review.

3. Presentation preference

Authors should indicate their preferred presentation format:

- Oral Presentation
- Poster Presentation
