

Special Session

Special Session Title
Sustainable Manufacturing
Abstract
Sustainable manufacturing encompasses a wide range of activities through the life cycle of a product or service. Papers are encouraged in areas such as decarbonised manufacturing processes, material flow and energy flow modelling, life cycle assessment, decarbonising the supply chain, material recovery, and end-of-life processes including decommissioning and remanufacturing.