

Dr Malcolm Miller

Dr Malcolm Miller is a specialist anaesthetist, qualified at University of Cape Town in 2004.

He completed his medical training at University of Stellenbosch in 1994

Sub-specialized in Critical Care at Groote Schuur Hospital in 2006 and obtained the Certificate in Critical care medicine in 2008 through the College of Medicine of South Africa. Dr Miller is currently working as a senior specialist in Anaesthesia and Critical Care at Groote Schuur Hospital.

Past Chairperson of the Critical Care Society of South Africa, Western Cape Branch.

Also, the course director of the BASIC course (a two-day course introducing doctors to caring for seriously ill patients). His interests include Trauma, Abdominal compartment syndrome, Nutrition in critical illness and Antibiotic stewardship