

Dr Ilse Appel

Dr Ilse Appel is a consultant paediatric intensivist in the Paediatric Intensive Care Unit (PICU) at RCWMCH, Cape Town. Dr. Appel earned her undergraduate and postgraduate degrees from the University of Cape Town. Specialist training was completed at RCWMCH, Cape Town and a year fellowship in Paediatric Critical Care was completed at Great Ormond Street Hospital, London. She is involved in the daily management of the PICU, critically ill paediatric patients with a range of medical and surgical conditions and support of their families. Involvement in multidisciplinary team approach to holistic patient care. Dr Appel is a lecturer in the Faculty of Medicine and Health Sciences, UCT. Research interests are sepsis, hospital acquired infections and adverse events within the intensive care environment. Dr. Appel has achieved a Postgraduate Diploma in Business Management and Administration through Stellenbosch Business School.