

Professor Brenda Morrow

Prof. Brenda Morrow

PhD 2005; PG Diploma (Paediatric Palliative Medicine) 2019; Postgraduate Diploma (Health Research Ethics) 2014; BSc Physiotherapy 1995

Brenda Morrow is a Physiotherapist and Full Professor in the Department of Paediatrics & Child Health, University of Cape Town, South Africa. Brenda has special interests in interdisciplinary paediatric critical care practice and research; cardiopulmonary rehabilitation; palliative care; and medical ethics. Brenda has over 150 peer reviewed publications; she is co-editor of the textbook, "Cardiopulmonary Physiotherapy in Trauma: An Evidence-based Approach"; she has written 21 book chapters; and presented at numerous national and international congresses. Brenda holds a Southern African National Research Foundation (NRF) B rating. She is immediate past-President of the World Federation of Pediatric Intensive and Critical Care Societies (WFPICCS) and President-Elect of the Critical Care Society of Southern Africa. Brenda is currently Editor-in-Chief of the Southern African Journal of Critical Care; Senior Associate Editor for Pediatric Critical Care Medicine and Associate Academic Editor of PlosOne. She is a regular reviewer for over 40 international journals and grant funding agencies.