Co-founder and CEO

Change

CHANGE was founded by Northwestern alumni Sonia Nigam and Amar Shah.

The mission is simple - “to power social impact with every online transaction.”

CHANGE streamlines corporate giving, provides real-time analytics and actively engages coveted demographics with dynamic, shareable content. The company has positioned itself to be the donation infrastructure for eCommerce.

Co-founder and CEO, Sonia Nigam, is passionate about fully integrating social impact into the digital world. She studied Computer Science and Business at Northwestern University and previously engineered frictionless payments at Braintree® and Venmo®.
