

Amar Shah

Co-founder and President Change

CHANGE was founded by Northwestern alumni Sonia Nigam and Amar Shah.

The mission is simple - “to power social impact with every online transaction.”

CHANGE streamlines corporate giving, provides real-time analytics and actively engages coveted demographics with dynamic, shareable content. The company has positioned itself to be the donation infrastructure for eCommerce.

Co-founder and president, Amar Shah, strives to make an impact by making giving easy and transparent. He studied Computer Science and Economics at Northwestern University, worked in the finance team at Bear Necessities Pediatric Cancer Foundation, and is an associate at Birchwood Healthcare Partners.
