

Amit Patel

Managing Director, Nonprofit Practice
Accenture

As the lead of Accenture's Nonprofit Practice globally, Amit helps domestic and international nonprofits define their strategic objectives and develop solutions to improve outcomes. His expertise covers a range of challenges faced by today's nonprofits and he helps these organizations innovate, drive transformation and scale social impact. Amit helped start Accenture's Nonprofit Practice and is respected for his thought leadership on nonprofit growth and innovation.

Passionate about making a difference, Amit volunteers with nonprofits across a range of causes. He advocates for responsible, purpose-driven business and believes that cooperation across the private, nonprofit, and government sectors will help solve critical problems, strengthen our communities, and improve lives.
